DEDICATION

Bill,
Best wishes to a nice fellow.
You've been a good addition to the senior class.
Be good.
R. Knierim

DO YOU KNOW . . .

.....the man with the musical hands?

Do you know the man who established a National Honor Society in our school?

Do you know the man whose wit and humor inspires everyone around him?

If so, you know Mr. Robert Lee Knierim, our conscientious music teacher. It is to you, Mr. Knierim, that we proudly dedicate the 1966 Fortress and say "thanks" for your hard work and patience.

IN MEMORY OF
THOSE BRAVE MEN WHO FOUGHT AND DIED
IN VIETNAM FOR THE PRESERVATION OF FREEDOM

IN THE TINY LAND OF VIET NAM

12, 000 miles from home,
Young Americans have died alone.
Fighting in a bitter war,
They have died to the sound of the cannon's roar,
In the tiny land of Viet Nam.

Young men, some still in their teens,
Not really sure what their fighting means,
Have been called by their country to fight
Against the enemies of good and right.
In the tiny land of Viet Nam.

Gone from our sight, but not our hearts,
These brave young men have done their parts
To stop the attacks of the Viet Cong,
So democracy and justice may go on.
In the tiny land of Viet Nam.

Paul E. Parish

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Members of the Class of 1966:

Sincerest congratulations to each member of the 1966 class of Fort Ashby High School as you approach graduation and the realization of a most important goal in your lives! I was privileged to work closely with you during the past four years of your schooling. Thus, a recollection of you will always bring to the mind happy associations and pleasant relationships.

The aim of education at Fort Ashby is to provide our children and youth with the best possible education. As good students, you have cooperated by setting up the pursuit of academic excellence as your objective during your years of formal education.

In the years ahead, try to keep alive that drive for learning and desire to excel developed during the past twelve years. In this increasingly competitive life and society, may you be rewarded richly for your persevering efforts.

Cordially yours,

J. William Marker

Early in the school year the Juniors chose their class rings.

Here the volunteer firemen are demonstrating the correct way to extinguish a fire.

The Seniors held their annual Halloween party. Here Doug Rogers and Kathleen Linn are having their troubles.

Representatives from various colleges met with the Juniors and Seniors. Many decisions were made as to college choice.

AND EVENTS

The seventh grade presented the Thanksgiving assembly. Here Robin Clayton is reciting a poem.

Christmas at F.A.H.S. was a time of joy for all. Here comes Santa Claus down the chimney now!

Our school was visited by the NASA Space-mobile. All students gained a broader know-ledge of the present conquest of space.

Formal initiation for new F.T.A. members was held in January.

AUDIO-VISUAL
Sponsor: Mr. Sayers
Students practice running movie projectors and cameras.

F.H.A.

Our future homemakers get their start here.

DANCING
Sponsors: Mr. Dye, Mr. Riley
Students get a chance to enjoy themselves by doing all the latest steps.

BIBLE CLUB
Sponsor: Mrs. Armstrong
Club members endeavor to learn more about the Bible.

SPORTS SR.
Mr. Johnson
These boys are ready for action.

SCIENCE
Sponsor: Mr. Bonar
Here students learn more about the ever-changing world of science.

JR. HIGH SPORTS
Sponsor: Mr. Dunn
Here's where the stars are born!

F. T. A.
Sponsor: Mrs. Mason
These students will one day become good teachers.

PEP
Sponsor: Mrs. Athey
This club promotes school spirit and sportsmanship.

HOBBY
Sponsor: Mr. Richards
These students learn that hobbies are fun.

B.J.
Since I helped make this page I'll write on it. Well this has been a good year. We are certainly glad to you come back to us from Fort Hill. Never forget the dumb nickname you had Jerome. (Best not write it in here). Well be good to Donna, those Wagoners are something special. Never forget me, for I shall never forget you.
Love ya

Bill,

To one of my very best friends I wish the very, very best of luck and happiness ever. I'd like to thank you somehow for coming down the house and keeping me company. I know lots of people think we're more than just friends, and we are - the very, very best of friends. I hope somehow I've filled your life with happiness and joy as you have mine. I know this sounds sadly funny but I guess that's the breaks. Good-luck in the air force. I hope you remember me like I know I'll remember you. Come back to see me when you can! O.K.? Again I'll wish you luck! But I can't say you need it.

Your friend forever,
Donna

Bill,

To one of my best buddys. I extend my greatest hope that you succeed in every venture you attempt. Best of luck also with the girls in the column next to mine or any other girl you want. You will probably end up with nothing but the best.

your pal,
Steve
